

Arbor Village Names Brian Prouty Director of Sales and Marketing

KENT, Wash.—Arbor Village, a continuing care retirement community, named Brian Prouty as director of sales and marketing for the campus. Prouty will be responsible for informing potential residents and their families about the continuing care community, establishing relationships with community members and training the marketing staff for the campus.

Prouty has more than eight years of experience in sales and marketing specific to the senior health care industry. He also has experience as an activity director and executive director in the senior care industry. Through his experience working with a nationally recognized senior housing company, Prouty gained skill in opening and establishing senior communities. His focus on teamwork, enthusiasm and fresh ideas gives Prouty successful solutions for seniors and their families. Prior to joining Arbor Village, he has held positions with the YMCA of Greater Seattle and King County Boys & Girls Clubs.

Arbor Village is owned and operated by Cascade Living Group. Focused in the western U.S., Cascade Living Group provides active retirement, independent, assisted living, and memory care communities. The Arbor Village campus offers independent and assisted living, and a state of the art 60-bed memory care community to be completed in 2009.

For more information about the community, please call 253-856-1600. The Arbor Village campus is located at 24205 116th Ave SE.