KENT, Wash.— January 4, 2008—Cascade Living Group, a regional senior living provider, announced today it has acquired a majority ownership position of a Kent senior housing community. The community is comprised of two properties, Arbor Village, an 89-bed assisted living community, and The Inn at Arbor Village, a 30-bed independent living community. Brian and Steve Yates, the founders, will retain a minority share of ownership of the Arbor Village properties.
