Last year alone, America's national parks were visited by almost 312 million people, evidence of how much we crave the clean air, beautiful scenery, and tranquility of the outdoors. Is there any better way to immerse yourself in nature than camping? June is Camping Month, and these days you no longer have to "rough it" to enjoy the splendors of nature. A variety of camping options abound that provide all the amenities and comforts of home.

The glamping ("glamorous camping") trend has hit the mainstream. Tents are large and comfortable, outfitted with electricity, beds, furniture, kitchens, and even running and heated water. Some campgrounds offer yurts, those round tents from Mongolia, or fabulous architectural tree houses that turn traditional camping into a fairytale dream. Of course, glamping doesn't come cheap, with tents sometimes costing as much as luxury hotel rooms.

RVs, too, have become luxury vehicles. Some RVs are 45 feet long and boast king-sized beds, guest rooms, full bathrooms, leather sofas, quartz countertops in the kitchen, motorized dining tables, washers, dryers, full-sized refrigerators, dishwashers, multiple TVs, skylights, patios, electric fireplaces, Wi-Fi, and jacuzzi-like tubs. One model even has a rooftop lounge with a pop-up sun shield to keep you cool during the day and a heated floor to keep your feet warm while stargazing at night. These RVs are more like luxury apartments on wheels, and they often cost as much, with prices typically soaring over one million dollars.

For those who still want to rough it, there are wilderness survival-skill camps. Professional survivalists lead you into the wilderness without a backpack or any gear and teach you how to live off the land, build your own shelter, and find your own food and water. While this might not be as comfortable as glamping, some might find the challenge more rewarding.

You May Now Lick The Bride

It is well known that June is a popular month for weddings, but did you know that the second week in June is Pet Wedding Week, a week dedicated to the lasting union between animals? This unique holiday was designed for pet owners who believe that their pets should be suitably paired and partnered into loving relationships for the purposes of companionship and breeding. There is even a National Pet Association of Ceremonies, a nationally recognized body of pet ceremony officiants, that will conduct official pet weddings. Like human weddings, costs can grow exponentially, with some paying thousands for catering, flowers, live music, and, of course, bridal gowns.

Happy
 Father's Day

A Day for Dad

The very first celebration of Father's Day was on June 19, 1910, at a YMCA in Spokane, Washington. Sonora Smart Dodd had watched her father single-handedly raise six children. After hearing a sermon about the virtues of Mother's Day, Dodd approached her pastor and suggested a comparable holiday for fathers. Her pastor agreed and set the date for the third Sunday in June.

Father's Day became an annual observance in Spokane, but once Dodd left home to attend school at the Art Institute of Chicago, the holiday was quickly forgotten. Upon her return to Spokane, Dodd embarked upon a crusade to recognize Father's Day on a national level. She sought the help of trade groups that would benefit from such a holiday: tie and tobacco pipe manufacturers. The New York Associated Men's Wear Retailers group even founded a Father's Day Council to promote the holiday. Decades passed, and members of the U.S. Congress resisted founding a national holiday. It wasn't until 1972 that President Richard Nixon made Father's Day a permanent national holiday by signing it into law.
